Growth

The momentum behind containers certainly isn't showing signs of slowing down in 2019, as businesses continue to recognize their benefits, such as increased scalability and limited cybersecurity attacks.

Recent survey results indicate that containers continue to grow in relevance with 32% of companies spending $500,000 or more a year on license and usage fees, up from 5%.

Financial investment in containers grows with million-dollar investments more than doubling year-on-year.

★ Micro-Sites

A Microsite is comprised of an individual page or a cluster of pages. Microsites are particularly useful if your business offers a variety of products or services and you want to highlight one segment for your customers. The Microsite ensures thought leadership in a particular discipline and can be a permanent place to showcase the product, or a temporary site during a product launch or promotion. A Micro-site exists to cater to a very specific context.

🎯 Display Advertising

From traditional direct-response CPM and CPC campaigns, to custom-built display options, DevOps.com has a solution to meet your branding needs. Site-wide, section-specific and newsletter ads are available in a variety of sizes and placements, including:

Leaderboard (728 x 90) Sidebar (300 x 250)

😊 DevOps Cartoons

Cartoons have a business benefit that is indisputable. Cartoons can convey the benefits of service in such a way that they are not perceived as selling. The reader will embrace a cartoon and remember it far longer than any value proposition presented in traditional formats.

DevOps.com will publish in the normal rotation on the Homepage.

💬 Editorial Surveys

Every quarter, we'll run a vendor-neutral survey to focus on important trends within the DevOps community, including perceptions about digital transformation, best practices within the enterprise and career trends and career trends amongst DevOps practitioners. Sponsorship is a branding opportunity, with logo placement within the survey report and mentions during survey promotion.

📈 Premiere Webinars

Our editorial team will facilitate lively debate and discourse in our monthly premiere webinars, featuring DevOps practitioners and topics chosen by the DevOps editorial staff. Attendees will be emailed a downloadable PDF report with summary highlights after the show. Sponsors will be mentioned briefly during the show and have the opportunity for branding within the PDF.

The authenticity of this vendor-neutral approach offers a unique branding opportunity for sponsors hoping to contribute to the DevOps community and increase their profiles in the process.

Custom Content

Whitepapers

A typical whitepaper describes a unique business challenge, then suggests potential solutions. Ideally the whitepaper will not only present the vendor's business case, but also contain information that provides value independent of the vendor. It is an effective tool for presenting a vendor's product or service to upper management and overcoming internal resistance.

Microsites

Microsites let you build a site within a site - establishing your own unique space with custom branding within DevOps.com. It can be a single page or a small cluster of webpages that focus on the challenges your products and services address, and provides an opportunity for you to market your solutions to the DevOps.com audience

eBooks

An eBook is an effective way to demonstrate thought leadership and build brand reputation without boring the audience to death. A great tool to tell your story visually, eBooks are less dense and more magazine-like than the typical whitepaper. Present weighty topics in an accessible manner and use this as a tool for branding, demand generation, lead generation and market education.

Surveys

Custom surveys can help vendors conduct market research and disseminate information that will help prospect contacts make their case to upper management for new tools and platforms to help their DevOps journey.

All of these demand and lead generation options are powerful components of an integrated campaign. Our team is prepared to help you develop a package tailored to your business needs.
